Summary of REVIT

- Within this strategic marketing analysis we sought out to understand Rivet and the industry better through in-depth research in order to produce a future outline that will progress the company in the years to come.
- Each section holds significant information that gives insight into our studies and provides Rivet with some critical pieces of advice that could make the company even better. We started out by defining where the business is through our "company overview" and "situational analysis" sections and then moved on to apply a "SWOT analysis" on the company to identify what we needed to work on primarily.
- We finished up by showing our main advice to catapult Rivet even further in front of the competition in the section labeled "strategic marketing moves".
- We also added our detailed outlook on what the company could do within the next five years under "strategic marketing moves" for Rivet to understand our vision.
- Each of the upcoming sections contain brief introductory paragraphs followed by the more detailed information for the business to really grab onto and use. We hope our suggestions and research give useful insight because we care about Rivet and we really want to see the company continue succeeding in the future.
